MIPS Eligibility

4 Easy Steps to Find Out if You’re MIPS Eligible

Step 1
Go to the QPP website: qpp.cms.gov

Step 2
Click on the MIPS drop-down menu

Step 3
Click “Check Your Participation Status”

Step 4
Enter in your NPI (National Provider Identifier) and click “Check All Years”

You should now be able to see if you are MIPS-eligible for 2018. You will also see whether or not you were MIPS-eligible for 2017.
MIPS Eligibility

4 Easy Steps to Find Which NPIs in Your TIN Are MIPS Eligible

Step 1
Go to the QPP website: qpp.cms.gov

Step 2
Click on the MIPS drop-down menu

Step 3
Sign into QPP using your EIDM account information

Click “Eligibility” on the left hand side of the page or “View Eligibility” on the center of the page

You should now be able to see all of the MIPS-eligible clinicians within the TIN for 2018. You will NOT see 2017 MIPS eligibility information like when using the NPI look-up tool.
